

LLANTWIT MAJOR PEACE FESTIVAL

SENEDD 2026

HUSTINGS

Wales faces a time of significant change as we approach the Senedd election in May. Our existing MS is standing down, and there will be a new electoral system which means however we vote we will have new political representatives from a wider range of political parties.

We have invited candidates from all of the political parties that the polls predict will win seats in the Senedd in May. So join us to meet those candidates and ask them your questions.

The event will be co-chaired by Fr Edwin Counsell, Barnaby Flynn and [tbc]. The hustings is part of the Llantwit Major Peace Festival.
